Week 4: Twelve Rounds: Fighting For Your Faith

Connect

Have you ever been in a fight before? Share what comes to mind when you think of the word “fight?”

Grow

1. Scott said that every day we wake up, we are in a fight. Share about a time when you experienced opposition at work, at home, or in some other circumstance.
2. Read Ephesians 6:12. According to this Scripture, who is our enemy? How does that change the way we fight our battles?
3. Take a moment to share the things you would die for. Does the way you are living your life reflect that? What does this list reveal about the way you are living?
4. Read 1 Timothy 6:12. What does your physical energy, time, and finances suggest you are fighting for? Are you investing in a “good fight”?
5. Scott said that what we fight for is an indication of what we really love. How could you be “fighting” better? What could you stop and start fighting for?
6. Read James 2:14-17. What are some ways we over-complicate our faith? What does simple faith look like?
7. Is your faith more like shadow-boxing or really stepping into the ring? Why?
8. Read Luke 22:44. What was Jesus fighting for in this moment? Who was He fighting for? How does that change your life?

Pray

Ask God to give you the courage to step up and fight for what matters. Pray He helps everyone in the group identify what is a “good fight” in your lives. And pray for the strength to engage in the battles.

Next

Grab a journal or sheet of paper and make a list of the things you need to STOP fighting for (investing your blood, sweat, and tears). Now, make a list of the things you should START fighting for.
